

No More Dying of Thirst While You're on an Adventure! Personalised Sports Bottles Will Always Be at Your Side

Think about long hikes along the mountain trails, or walks in the countryside, caressed by the wind and the sun. How lovely they are! Not to mention the beach, which welcomes us every year when we can finally relax. Going around exploring new places is always exciting. Travel is good, it fills us with motivation and gives us new inspiration. To do this, however, you must have all the necessary equipment.

A company that wants to promote its own brand can focus on personalised travel accessories, so as to give its customers a corporate gift with a safe image return. These items, besides being useful during trips, help those who receive them to live the best of moments of leisure and happiness. Any corporate gift that can be useful and linked to a beautiful experience will put you in the best light in the eyes of your audience. Thinking of an object that can be part of the equipment for a trip out of town is then a great starting point. Especially since the days outdoors – however relaxing – imply some difficulties.

Stressing your eyes, catching cold, finding yourself in heavy rain: being outdoors is certainly not comfortable. Corporate gifts that help overcome these drawbacks are always a success, because they allow us to enjoy the best of the day and keep a beautiful memory of it. So, for instance, personalised caps protect those who wear them from the wind and the sun, avoiding headaches and sunburn. Many companies try to be close to their customers by giving them branded telescopic umbrellas, which they can carry with them at all times. First of all, however, when you are away from home for a long time, you have to hydrate yourself. While you are getting ready for a trip or excursion, the water bottle should be the first accessory to put in your bag.

A New Companion of Adventures: Take Your Personalised Sports Bottle with You at All Times

Personalised water bottles are a classic in the world of promotional products. Available in a thousand different versions, they can be used in the office, at university or during a trip. They are practical and easy to handle, but a particular model meets all the needs of a keen traveller: the personalised sports bottle.

A Lightweight Water Bottle

Designed for sporty people and for those who lead an active life, personalised sports bottles have a fundamental feature: they are lightweight. Thanks to the materials they are made of, even the largest models guarantee excellent portability. It is needless to say how this aspect is decisive for the success of a water bottle intended for trips and excursions. Weighing little, they will be a help to your customers, with all pros and no cons.

A Corporate Gift Which Is Easy to Carry Around

To make the personalised sports bottles even easier to carry around is their conformation. Many models are equipped with a hook. They can be attached, for instance, to a backpack or bag, so that you always have them at hand during your walk. A travel agency that has given custom sport backpacks could now distribute these water bottles, which customers can use together with the corporate gift they have already received. A great way to show consistency and attention to the public, but also to circulate your logo even more efficiently, thanks to two promotional products used together.

Choosing A Personalised Sports Bottle

While all personalised sports bottles are characterised by lightness and a comfortable and safe method of transport, on the other hand the models differ in colour, materials and structure. The choice will be determined by the visual effect you want to achieve and the feature you think is most practical.

Materials

The selection of personalised sports bottles includes items made of different materials. These affect the aesthetic performance, while leaving the weight more or less unchanged. In any case, personalised sports water bottles will be light and comfortable. In general, in this subcategory you will find:

- Personalised plastic water bottles of various types, such as those in Tritan and those in ABS.
- Personalised aluminium water bottles, made with a durable and lightweight metal.

The choice will communicate a lot. A Tritan bottle, for instance, can express closeness to the environment, as it is a 100% recyclable, eco-friendly material. It can be a way to spread awareness about the alternatives available to disposable plastic, too. Choosing a personalised water bottle is always a green option, because it can be used multiple times and instead of plastic bottles. With personalised eco-friendly water bottles, you will stress your commitment to the environment even more.

With a personalised aluminium water bottle, on the other hand, you will get a corporate gift that looks refined. Its metallic touch instils a sense of professionalism and seriousness. Besides, being stainless, it will last over time, promoting your brand in every path, beach or city where it will be used.

The Options: Cap and Hook

The choice is influenced by the single elements that make up the personalised sports bottles, too. Not all of them have the same structure and, as a consequence, they do not work in the same way. The main variables are the hook and the cap. In particular, for the first you will have at your disposal:

- Personalised sports bottles with carabiner hook, tough and able to make the user feel safe.
- Personalised sports bottles with shoulder strap or strap, resistant and with a more delicate design.

As for the spout, on the other hand, you can choose between:

- Personalised sports bottles with flexible straw spout. In these models the spout is placed on the cap. You can take it out in a few moments and use it practically and quickly.
- Personalised sports bottles with push-pull cap. This type is perfect for those who love comfort and want an immediate way to drink from their bottle.
- Personalised sports bottles with screw closure. This option represents the classic mechanism to close the bottles.

Then there are folding sports bottles, an original and certainly useful gift. Your customers can store them in their bag once they are empty and they won't without take up much space.

Your Logo in Every Place? Using Personalised Sports Water Bottles on Holiday, In the Park and At the Gym

Cap, spout and hook – however variable – all contribute to making the personalised sports bottle a corporate gift to take anywhere. Thanks to a carabiner you can attach it safely to your backpack, with a strap you can hold it in your hand with extreme comfort. The push-pull cap and straw spout are the most loved by joggers and sporty people. A screw closure bottle could be the ideal solution for those who love more traditional items.

In any case, a personalised sports water bottle will always keep its two main qualities: lightness and ease of transport. Used on holiday, in the park or at the gym, it will expose your logo to a large number of people and an audience of various tastes. So, it will be perfect for promoting your brand, especially as it will prove useful and smart. Plus, it can be customised on the whole surface – depending on the models. This implies that the print will be clearly visible and that you will have the opportunity to add not only your logo and name, but a writing as well. It can be the company slogan as well as a motivational phrase, an option that is suitable for both your team and a group of athletes.

Printing or engraving the right words can play a very important role on the impression that your promotional product will make on those who look at it. Making the most of this opportunity could be the right way to expand your business, bringing your logo and name everywhere with your personalised sports bottles.
